Meeting was called to order @ 12:00 Noon by Brad Berdoy Chairman.

Old Business:

The 42nd Annual Washington State Boiler Inspector's Association Conference.

Based on the results the overall conference went well. There were about 126 people in attendance. We passed out a survey to the attendees and we received approximately 1/3 of the responses back. We also received 18 suggested topics for future meetings. Based on the number of responses we received back the conference went well.

Brad Berdoy gave $150.00 gift certificate to Space Needle, $150.00 gift certificate to The Spirit of Washington dinner train, and 4 gift certificates

Sponsors-WSBIA mailed out 15 letters to potential sponsors requesting $200.00 from each participant. The expectation was to receive that amount from at least eight (8) of the sponsors to give us a working fund of $1600.00 to prepare us for the 2007 conference, as well as pay off some of our current debt.

New Business:

Ed Parry made a motion to have the WSBIA annual meeting at the Museum of Flight for the year 2007. Motion passed unanimously. Discussion came to the table to raise the price to $40.00 per attendee.

Chris Villa made a motion to have the WSBIA annual meeting for 2008 at Embassy suites. Motion passed unanimously.

Anthony Oda spoke with Teresa Hidalgo at embassy Sites, he reserved Friday March 14, 2008 for the 2008 WSBIA meeting. Thursday March 15, 2007 is still open as well. Tony informed Teresa of our plans to have the 2007 meeting at the Museum of Flight. He has left messages for Erin Brophy, Special Events Manager informing her of our intentions to have the WSBIA meeting there March 15, 2007. The down payment for the Museum of Flight is $580.00 plus $7.00 per person meal charge.

Noel Schroeder – spoke about Vapor Phase Corrosion Inhibitor

Brad Berdoy asks why there isn't a Boiler Inspector on the Board of Boiler Rules. Ken

Eshleman stated, "There is." Linda Williamson asks, "Should the WSBIA get a credit card?"

All present were told to bring back answer to next meeting.

Motion made to adjourn at 1:15 P.M. There was a second that the meeting adjourned @ 1:15p.m. Motion passed, meeting adjourned @ 1:15 p.m.
